

CONTENTS

DARKO TODOROVIĆ. MIHAJLO MORAČA. The first hexameters of Serbian literature – On the occasion of death of the immortal Jovan Rajić by Atanasije Stojković. DRAGAN TUBIĆ. ALEKSANDRA NOVAKOV. Class status and geographical origin of the subscribers to Jovan Rajić's History of various slavie nations. RADMILO MAROJEVIĆ. Njegoš's decasyllable. Fragment: An interpretation by Frank Wollman. JOVAN POPOV. Studying of the studied: how do/should we write about Dostoevsky?. MLADEN JAKOVLJEVIĆ. Spaces and victorian fears in Stevenson's Jekyll and Hyde, Wilde's Picture of Dorian Gray and Stoker's Dracula. GORAN MAKSIMOVIĆ. Considering the work of Bora Stanković in history and reviews of Serbian literature. GORAN PETROVIĆ. Anglo-russian antogonism in the literary oeuvre of Rudyard Kipling: an imagological and ideological perspective. MILICA ALEKSIĆ. Suffering and rebellion in the short stories of Ivo Andrić's Abuse (1946) and Fyodor M. Dostoevsky's The meek one (1876). ENRICO DAVANCO. SVETLANA ŠEATOVIĆ. Characteristics of various italian translations of A tomb for Boris Davidovich. SRĐAN ORSIĆ. Sumatranist Corto Maltese. ĐORĐE ĐURĐEVIĆ. The marian poetics of the poem „The whisper of John Damascene“ and its reflections in the collection Four Canons by Ivan V. Lalić. JELENA MLADENOVIĆ. Exclusions and onomatopoeae in the processes of (dis)integration of poetic language/world in the poetry of Dragan Bošković. MILICA MOJSILOVIĆ. The experience of exile and the motif of the plague in the poem „Once, I dreamed of the plague“ by Ana Ristović. MILIVOJ BAJŠANSKI. A contribution to the literature of Serbian oral poetry, Stojan Novaković. Translation from German and Commentary. ŽELJKO VELJKOVIĆ. Parish death record of Sava Mrkalj: his death and burial. REVIEWS. IN MEMORIAM.